to-night, and it is likely that the question will occupy the entire time of that bedy. Undoubtedly the ordinance will be fought from all sides. The Business Men's Association will have a committee on hand to request that the Assembly turn the proposition down, and other influence will be brought to beat against the passage of the measure. The action of the Finance Committee in referring the ordinance to the Assembly with a favorable report, does not mean, according to certain members of the body, that it will meet with the same success to-night. Members of the Assembly are reticent on the sub-

Patrons' Day Observed.

The observance of Patrons' Day in the Manchester schools yesterday was highly successful, and visitors went in and out of the different city schools. The parents and guardians of the children and the patrons of the schools were highly pleased with the system of instruction, and all had nothing but praise for those in charge of the work. The system of education in this city has been worked up to a standard of high degree, and the supporters of the schools are greatly pleased at its ef-

SEE TAFT INAUGURATED

Three Companies of First Virginia Reg-iment Will Go to Washington. That Richmond will be well repre-sented at the inauguration of Presideni-Elect Taft is evidenced by the fact that to date three companies of the First Virginia Regiment have agreed to attend the parade in Washington on March 4th. Already Company A, Captain W. C. Herbert commanding; Company C, Captain W. C. Wallace commanding, and Company F, Captain J. H. Stone commanding, have voted to attend the inaugural parade, and it is expected that the other companies will follow.

As the expenses of the trip will have to be borne by the members of the regiment, and State ald in no way is given them, it is all the more commendable that the companies should bear the burden of being in the paradr. That they will make a fine showing is certain, as the companies are drilling faithfully every night in the armory on Seventh Street, and there are few men absent.
